frequently asked questions

When does the Museum offer birthday parties?

Birthday parties are available on Saturdays and Sundays. We offer a morning time slot from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm and an afternoon time slot from 1:30 to 4:30 pm.

The first 30 minutes of each time slot is to be used for set up and the last 30 minutes is to be used for clean up.

What types of birthday celebrations are offered?

We currently offer 2 types of birthday party packages. Both packages include a free birthday t-shirt for the birthday child.

The Dream Factory package costs $575 (plus an incidentals deposit) and includes a 3-hour rental of a semi-private lounge with communal tables and Museum admission for 22 guests.

The Tinkerers Treat package costs $750 (plus an incidentals deposit) and includes a 3-hour rental of the private Tinkerers Studio and Museum admission for 30 guests. This package also includes a facilitated, hands-on activity that is approximately 30 minutes long for the birthday child and friends. The activity will begin 90 minutes after the reservation begins. The following activity options are available:

- up + away (all ages): Explore the way things move through the air with handmade hovercrafts, whirly-gigs, and more!
- birthday story time (ages 1-2): Strengthen social skills and build language development during this multi-sensory story time!
- sensational slime (ages 3+): Explore chemical reactions and discover the special properties of slime!
- magical minis (ages 6+): Get creative and hone your artistic talents with an incredible shrinking art project!

How far in advance do I need to reserve the space for the party?

Parties can be booked up to 4 months in advance. We recommend you reserve your party at least 2 months in advance of your child's anticipated party date so that we can plan the best experience possible.

How do I book a birthday party?

Parties are booked on a first-come, first-served basis. To book your party, please visit www.nationalchildrensmuseum.org/host-an-event/birthday-parties/. Once you've purchased your birthday party, you will receive a confirmation email that includes an agreement to download and sign. Your booking will not be considered complete until a signed agreement is submitted to the Museum. The agreement must be submitted at least 2 weeks in advance of the birthday party date.

When is payment due?

Payment for the birthday party package and the incidentals deposit is due at the time the birthday party reservation is made.

Why do I have to pay an incidentals deposit?

A refundable $125 incidentals deposit is charged along with the cost of the birthday party package to:

- ensure that the host and guests vacate the reserved space on time;
- cover any damages to the Museum or its property; and
- pay for additional cleaning if a significant number of items are left behind in the space.

The incidentals deposit will be refunded to the guest within 5 business days, unless it is needed to compensate the Museum for additional staff time, damages, and/or additional cleaning.

Parties must stay within specified guest capacities. If parties go over the capacity limit any additional guests will be subject to pay the full admission price and party hosts will forfeit their incidental deposit.

How many party guests can attend?

The Dream Factory package allows admission for up to 22 guests and the Tinkerers Treat package allows admission for up to 30 guests. Guest limits are based on capacity limitations of the space. The total guest count includes all adults and children ages 1 and up, including the host family. If the actual guest count exceeds the applicable guest count limit, any additional guest (or the host) will be required to pay regular admission to enter the Museum, and party guests will be prohibited from entering the reserved space if it is determined that the number of guests will be unsafe.

Parties must stay within specified guest capacities. If parties go over the capacity limit any additional guests will be subject to pay the full admission price and party hosts will forfeit their incidental deposit.

How early can I arrive to set up the party?

Where can I park my car?

There are several private garages within close proximity to the Museum. The adjacent Ronald Reagan Building also has a 24-hour public garage. Rates vary per hour and vehicles are subject to inspection. If you use the Ronald Reagan Building Garage, you can park on any level; however, the Atrium North parking area, marked with green signs, is nearest to the Museum. Please note, because the Museum’s main entrance is located off Woodrow Wilson Plaza, it is not possible to pull up directly in front to unload party supplies.

Which public transportation stops are nearest to the Museum?

The Museum is easily accessible by public transportation. We are located steps away from the Federal Triangle Metro station (orange, blue and silver lines) and are just three blocks from Metro Center Metro station (red line). Nearby bus routes include 30N, 30S, 32, 33, 34, 36, D6, and P6.

What is your policy regarding reservation changes, cancellations, and refunds?

To request a change to the party date, at least 2 weeks advance notice is required, and the availability of a new date and time is not guaranteed.

If the Tinkerers Treat package is selected, the selected activity cannot be changed less than 2 weeks in advance of the reservation date.

Cancellations must be received at least 2 weeks prior to the reservation date to receive a refund. Except for cancellations within the required notice timeframe, refunds will not be granted for any reason.

Refunds will not be issued if any exhibit, including the Dream Machine, is closed at any time during the party for any reason.
